TEEN TIME IN ST. LUCIA

Teens make the rules at Coconut Bay Beach Resort & Spa with paintball, waterslides and organized sports

VIEUX FORT, St. Lucia – March 12, 2009 – Coconut Bay offers two distinct sides – the adults-only “Harmony” and kid-friendly “Splash” – and uniquely caters to those in the middle: teenagers. With Coconut Bay’s structured activities and entertainment, teens can truly enjoy a sense of freedom. In turn, parents can relax and enjoy a much-needed vacation at this all-inclusive spa resort. Each family member can enjoy individual activities during the day and reconnect for meals, nightly entertainment and family bonding.

Sports: Teens interested in improving their basketball or tennis skills can practice on the resort’s six tennis courts or four basketball courts. Tennis lessons are available at no additional cost, and staff members coach teens in basketball pick-up games and coordinate resort-wide tournaments for competitive fun.

Paintball: “The Zone” is Coconut Bay’s outdoor paintball field for seriously colorful fun. Teens can hide behind barriers as they attempt to capture the flag and avoid neon paintballs fired by opponents. Guests 12 and up receive a complimentary round of paintball through December 2009.

Water Park: Teenagers can race down Coconut Bay’s two water slides and splash in three of the resort’s pools. Ordering tropical fruit smoothies at the swim-up bar can be a sweet treat to enjoy while floating in inner tubes down the lazy river.

Just Chillin’: Teens can hang out at “Da Buzz,” a popular spot stocked with video games, magazines and a Ping-Pong table. When hunger strikes, the “Catz Meow” snack bar serves pizza, nachos and cotton candy. Since the resort is all-inclusive, growing teenagers can eat or drink whatever they choose without having to worry about cash or charging to the room.

Independence: During all the fun, teens don’t have to entertain younger siblings since children 12 and under can enjoy the fully-supervised Kidz Klub. On the “Harmony” side of the resort, moms and dads can indulge in spa treatments and the adults-only pool for ultimate relaxation.

Nightly Entertainment: Teens can participate by singing at karaoke night or playing card games at country-western casino night. Coconut Bay’s staff creates a comfortable atmosphere so guests are interacting and able to meet new friends.
